86 YEARS

Mrs. Louise Koehler, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Mensing, celebrated the 86th anniversary of her natal day, Sunday. Nothing at elaboration, friends called to extend good wishes, and a light lunch was enjoyed. Of her children the following were present:

Mrs. Anna Kirsch, Mrs. Elise Mensing, Mrs. Julius Gebhardt and Arthur Koehler and their family connections. From Schulenburg came Mrs. M. Koehler, daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Larry Cornelson, grand-daughter.

The lateness of the offering decreases not the Journal's congratulations and hearty good wishes. May she continue to enjoy good health and have her family and friends to gather at the next anniversary.

HIS WISH FULFILLED

Death Claimed An Old Fayette County Citizen Sunday Evening

As per his wish expressed to the writer some months since, that when his name should be called, he would not linger but drift peacefully into the last sleep, Emil Koehler died Sunday night at the family home in the northern part of La Grange. Death followed quickly after he had made known his illness - - within a few hours. As was his custom and habit, and in which he ever found a great deal of pleasure, Mr. Koehler, apparently and in the very best of spirits, and jovial as was his nature, left the house and looked to the feeding of his chickens. It was when he essayed to return into the house that he was stricken and had to be assisted. In spite of the fact that medical aid was secured, he soon began his last earthly sleep. Near the eleventh evening hour' he received his wish, he fell asleep and passed out of the knowledge of all things earthly.

Mr. Koehler was man whom to know was to love and admire; he had long since passed the usual allotment of years granted to mortals, and maintained his ever friendly disposition, always ready to extend the greeting to his fellow man, and carrying with him an atmosphere of good cheer. We had all grown so accustomed him each morning and listen to his welcome voice, that now his absence will be noted by everybody. He was born in Halberstadt, Germany on the eighth day of April 1837, and grew to manhood in that country.

In 1864 the deceased emigrated to America and landed in New York where he remained for one year and then came to Texas and located at Bluff, in this county, where he engaged in farming. In the year 1871, December 22, he was united in marriage with Miss Louise Willrich of the Bluff community, and to them were born eight children, all of whom, with the widow, survive. These children are: Arthur Koehler of LaGrange, Mannie Koehler of Schulenburg, F. W. Koehler of Houston, Mrs. J. Gebhardt of LaGrange, Mrs. Alex Moore of Elgin and George Koehler of La Grange. Eleven grandchildren will also miss good old grandpa.

Tuesday afternoon the funeral was held from his late residence, and the remains were interred at the new cemetery, Rev. R. Heise conducting the ceremonies. May his rest be peaceful.

He Fell Asleep

Thursday afternoon, at his home 2 ½ miles south of La Grange surrounded by his loving wife, his mother, and several brothers, Fritz Mensing, conscious of the fact that his life's threads were about to be snapped in twain, turned from one to another, spoke cheerfully, and like an infant, fell into eternal sleep.

With his last breath there passed to his reward a good, honest man, the son of an old and highly respected family, one in whom every one who knew him, reposed the utmost confidence.

Fritz was born near his late home thirty-nine years ago on August 10, last. His early youth was spent on the farm where he remained until a few years after he had reached his majority, when he removed to La Grange and engaged in partnership with his brother, Hermann, in the mercantile business. Some thirteen years ago he was united in marriage with Miss Elise Koehler, the result of this union being a girl now 8 years of age, and an infant boy of fifteen months ----- the period in which he resided in this city, he was stricken with typhoid fever, lingering between life and death for several months. From the ravages of this fever he never entirely recovered. His vitality ebbed away gradually, until a brave fight ended in his demise.

His widow, his two children, God be merciful to them. They will mourn the loss of a good and loving husband and father. His mother, for whom he had so pleadingly asked just one short hour before his departure, will miss her eldest son. None but those who have experienced the anguish such loss occasions can fully appreciate the loss the mother has sustained. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved relatives.

Friday afternoon, the remains were brought to La Grange, and were interred at the new cemetery, where a large number of sympathizing friends had joined the relatives, to witness the last sad rites. May his rest be peaceful.

Ardie Kirsch

Death came to Ardie Kirsch, son of Mrs. Anna Kirsch of La Grange, Thursday. He was 42 years, 9 months, and 25 days old. Funeral services were held in the chapel of the Koenig Funeral Home, Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, Rev. R. Heise, Lutheran pastor officiating. Interment was made in the new city cemetery, Koenig Funeral Home in charge.

Ardie Kirsch was born in La Grange, September 4, 1901 and had spent his entire life in this city. For a number of years, after he reached his majority, he was employed by the Gulf Corporation with T. H. Kroll, manager. His father preceded him in death about 20 years. His mother, nee Miss Anna Koehler, and relatives of either family survive.

Card of Thanks

Employing this method of reaching those who were interested in my son, Ardie Kirsch, during his illness and who sought to comfort me when death relieved him of his suffering, I extend thanks to Dr. L. D. Boelsch, the La Grange Hospital and nurses for their attentions and to Rev. R. Heise and friends for their words of consolation. To those who brought flowers and thus expressed their love and interest thanks are also offered at this time.

Mrs. E. Koehler Passes Away

Mrs. Emma Martha Lena Schulz passed away in the Didear Rest Home in Yorktown on Tuesday, February 21, 1950, at the age of 60 years, 3 months and 13 days.

Mrs. Koehler was born as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schulz in Schulenburg on November 9, 1889, and spent her entire lifetime here. She had been in ill health since June of this past year and had been in Yorktown only a short time.

Being born and reared here, she was known to most all of the people of this area. She had many true and sincere friends who regret to learn of her death. She was a devout member of the church and took an active part in church work. It was in 1904 that she joined the Union Church in Schulenburg, which has now been changed to St. Paul's Church. Ever thoughtful of those about her, she lived a true Christian life. On December 24, 1909, she was united in marriage to A. M. (Monte) Koehler at La Grange. Mr. Koehler preceded her in death, having passed away on October 18, 1947.

Survivors include three sons, Arthur Koehler of Beeville; Ivan Koehler of Crockett; and Captain Marvin Koehler, who is stationed with the U. S. Occupational Forces in Stuttgart, Germany; her mother, Mrs. Sabina (Emil) Schulz, Sr., of Schulenburg; one sister, Mrs. Leafa Nierlich, of this city; six brothers, Emil, Otto, Herbert, and Charles of Schulenburg; Herman Schulz of Victoria; and Paul Schulz of Beeville; and two grandchildren. Her husband, her father, two sisters and one brother preceded her in death.

The remains will lie in state at the Schwenke-Baumgarten Funeral Home until 12:00 noon on Friday, then at St. Paul's Church from 12:30 o'clock until 2:00 o'clock, service time.

Interment will be in the Schulenburg City Cemetery with Rev. John Mueller of the St. Paul's Church, in charge of the service.

A Romantic Wedding

When Cupid's arrow rents the air, and penetrates the heart of the maiden, the inevitable result is the happy union of souls and hearts. Adolf Koehler, a handsome young man of Schulenburg, a hard working and energetic youngster, came over Christmas morning, and with him, his lady fair, who later became his bonnie bride.

Adolf, who is known to everyone here as "Mannie," became imbued with the romantic spirit, called upon his sweetheart that night, and at two o'clock the next morning the two left for La Grange, reaching here at five o'clock. Squire Moss, deep in Slumberland ----- and trembling - not from fear but the chilly cold - stepped out to the edge of the walk fronting his home, and in a few words pronounced the words that made the pair happy. After this the home of the groom's parents in the neighborhood was visited and Christmas pleasantly spent with the latter. The bride was Miss Emma Schulz, one of Schulenburg's popular young ladies.

The Journal congratulates the pair, and trusts that in the future to come, and with eyes blinded to the past, they will ever be as happy as now, that prosperity and joy be with them until the end of life's journey to another clime where there is thought to a happy union for all time.

Children of Adolf Koehler and Emma Schulz are:

- 14 i. Arthur Emmanuel⁶ Koehler, born 06 Jun 1911 in Schulenburg, Fayette, TX; died 28 Jul 1969 in Dallas, Dallas, TX.
- + 15 ii. Ivan Earl Koehler, born 28 Oct 1914 in Schulenburg, Fayette, TX; died 01 Apr 1983 in Dallas Co., TX.
- + 16 iii. Marvin Louis Koehler, born Private.

6. Hedwig Anna⁵ Koehler (Louisa Theodora⁴ Willrich, Georg Carl³, Wilhelm Christian², Johann August¹) was born 13 Jan 1880 in Bluff, Fayette, TX, and died 26 Nov 1971 in Houston, Harris, TX. She married Julius Anton Emil Gebhardt 24 Mar 1920 in LaGrange, Fayette, TX, son of Theodor Gebhardt and Katharina Beuster. He was born 02 Jan 1875 in Schopfheim, Germany, and died 12 Dec 1938 in LaGrange, Fayette, TX.

Julius Gebhardt

Julius Gebhardt, aged 63 years, 11 months, and 10 days, died Monday, December 12; Mr. Gebhardt had been failing health for the past three months. Funeral services were held at the Koenig Funeral Home Chapel, at 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, Rev. R. Heise officiating; interment was made in the new cemetery, Koenig Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Gebhardt, born in Germany, January 2, 1875, immigrated to America in 1900 and settled in New York, remaining in that city for several years. He came to La Grange in 1914, and became associated with a leading cotton exporting firm. He was a member of the Lutheran church and also a member of Bismark Lodge, No. 8, O.D.H.S.

In the year 1920 he was united in marriage with Miss Hedwig Koehler at La Grange, and to them was born two children, Katherine and Theodore who, with the widow survive. He is also survived by two brothers, Theo. and Ernst Gebhardt in Germany.

Mr. Gebhardt was a good citizen, ever encouraging high ideals, and was a close student of world news. His extensive travel, both in Germany and other foreign countries, and in the United States, enabled him to discuss such with ease, and his knowledge of the financial world made it possible for him to converse with force and intelligence on such matters.

The survivors have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Another Called Home.

The sad news was brought to town early Tuesday morning that Mrs. Geo. Koehler had died at the home of her parents the evening before, leaving a bright little baby girl and a heart-broken husband, parents and other relatives to mourn her departure. Mrs. Koehler, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lueders, and during her entire lifetime up to within about one year of the present date, had been a strong and healthy person, never knowing the ill effects of sickness. Some months ago she became ill from dropsy, and during the intervening time she had received the best of medical attention, but to no avail.

At all times she bore her affliction with great fortitude, cheerful and always the same jolly person that had made for her so many - - - She began to show signs for the worse, and instead of the puffed appearance that was hers for the past several months she became very poor, and partial paralysis followed the birth of her little babe. Monday night she passed away.

The young husband who was born and reared a few miles from town has been in the employ of the Alexander Grocery Company since their residence here and the two seemed to be very happy. They had purchased the lots in the Southern part of the city from Mr. Lueders and erected thereon a neat little cottage, which due to the sudden change of health of the deceased they were unable to occupy. As the patient grew worse she was taken out to the home of her parents and there died as above stated. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, and the remains were carried to William's Creek cemetery, and there interred. To the surviving relatives and the young husband we extend our sincerest sympathy.

Alex M. Moore Dies at Elgin, Sunday

Local relatives were advised by telephone last Sunday, before dawn that Alex M. Moore, who was born and reared here in La Grange, was in a serious condition, with slight hopes held out for recovery. Alex died at 3:00 o'clock the same morning.

Funeral was held at the Methodist church in Elgin at 5:00 p.m., with the pastor of the church and also the pastor of the Baptist church at Elgin officiating; and with both his Masonic brethren and veterans of the Spanish - American war veterans, in attendance. Both conducted funeral services.

Many will remember the red-headed youth who lived in La Grange until he reached his majority; he was united in marriage with Miss Lottie Koehler, daughter of the late Emil and Mrs. Laura Koehler, August 4, 1907; and to them was born two daughters; both of whom, with the widow survive; one daughter, Mrs. Dale Davis and little daughter, only grandchild and Miss Marguerite Moore.

Alex Moore was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ausken Moore, and a grandson of John E. Moore, early settler of La Grange, and for many years public weigher at the eastern end of the city. He was born March 8, 1880, and at the time of his death was 54 years, 6 months and 22 days old.

Those attending the funeral Sunday from La Grange, are: Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gebhardt, Mrs. Louise Koehler, Mrs. F. Mensing and son, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Koehler, Mrs. Anna Kirsch, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Killoughand, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Koehler and daughter of West Point.

Alex Moore was, in the truest sense of the word, a good citizen, and a kind husband, and father and neighbor. He was regarded in the highest terms by his fellow citizens at Elgin and here in La Grange where he was reared he leaves many friends. Our sincere sympathy is extended to the Moore family and other relatives.

Happily United

Yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at the Jefferson Street Lutheran church in this city, Rev. R. Heise, pastor united in marriage F. W. Koehler, of Houston and Miss Irma Augusta Amberg, of this city. Long before the appointed hour friends and relatives of the contracting parties had gathered at the house of worship to witness the impressive ceremony.

Prior to the arrival of the wedding party, Miss Edna Heilig sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told, " and Mrs. Lad V. Vanek, presiding at the organ, at the close of the song, played Mendelssohn's beautiful wedding march; the bride, leaning on the arm of her chosen companion slowly entered, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Alfred Moellenberndt and Leon Bodungen. As the wedding couple were leaving Mrs. Vanek played the "Bridal Chorus" from Wagner, the sweet, soul-inspiring strains adding solemnity to the occasion.

The interior of the church was handsomely decorated with ferns, pot-flowers and festooning. The scene, enhanced by the glow of the electrical light was enchanting. The bride's aunt, Mrs. C. W. Amberg supervised the transformation.

The bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding spread was partaken of, after which all repaired to the Katy passenger station where Mr. and Mrs. Koehler boarded the cars for Houston, their future home.

In joining their legion of friends, we express the hope that the future of the happy young couple will ever be bright and that prosperity will be a constant companion. The bride-groom, youngest son of Emil Koehler and wife, is an example of that type of fine young men, whose energy and morality prompts good citizenship. He was born and reared near La Grange and only recently removed to Houston where he is now associated with the Schuhmacher Company. Miss Irma, second daughter of Otto Amberg and wife, possessing an admirable disposition of friendliness and a loving daughter, will make an excellent helpmate.

Children of Frederick Koehler and Irma Amberg are:

- + 22 i. Hilmar Frederick⁶ Koehler, born 29 Jul 1916 in Houston, Harris, TX; died 22 Apr 1992 in Beaumont, Jefferson, TX.
- + 23 ii. Agnes Louise Koehler, born Private.

Lieut. Greenwood Is Reported As Missing

Mrs. Nathan A. Greenwood (nee Miss Katarina Gebhardt of La Grange) was advised by telegram by the War Department Tuesday morning, briefly:

"Lieut. Nathan A. Greenwood, pilot flyer, missing in action, July 5, over Sicily."

No further news up to the hour of going to press this, Wednesday afternoon. Lieut. Greenwood and Miss Katarina were united in marriage April 2 of this year; he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Greenwood of Seguin; the two met in that city while attending the Seguin Lutheran College.

Mrs. Greenwood left for Seguin Tuesday afternoon to be with the parents of her husband. The news, unwelcome to all connections, has cast a gloom over the city.

Further News About Lt. Greenwood Awaited

Up to Tuesday of this week the Journal has had no further news about Lieut. Greenwood, husband of the former Katharina Gebhardt of La Grange, and about whom mention was made in the last issue. The telegram that Mrs. Greenwood had received from the War Department merely stated that Lieut. Greenwood "was missing in action."

Lieut. Greenwood has been "somewhere in the combat zone on the Italian front for a month. From the Seguin Bulletin the Journal secured the photo illustration and the following lines of mention:

Lieut. Nat Greenwood

"Lieut. Greenwood piloted a B-25 bomber and has been somewhere in the combat zone on the Italian front, where the Americans and Allies are really doing a good job of it for the past week.

"Nat is a graduate of the Seguin High School, and attended Texas Lutheran College before going into the American Air Forces. He graduated from Ellington Field near Houston in February, 1943. He was stationed at several fields before being sent across. On April 2 he was married to Miss Katharina Gebhardt of La Grange. His parents last heard from him on July 1 and he wrote he was very busy.

"The official telegram stated that he was missing in action on the Italian front over Sicily and that further details would follow as soon as word was had. The entire town joins Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood in sympathy in their distress and in the sincere hope that word will soon reach them that he has been located and is well and safe."
